

I greatly value the K-Love radio station. It is difficult to get quality Christian radio programming because of limited local funds. The regional/national stations are of great value to me. Stations such as K-Love are a great influence in my community. The positive message sent out by K-Love is a wonderful for the public interest. Please don't do anything that would limit the accessibility of radio stations such as K-Love.